Notes to Financial Information

Year ended March 31, 2022

1. Purpose of the Society:

Stigma-Free Society (the "Society") offers tools and leadership, which foster awareness of stigma providing pathways to change. The Society performs their work by providing preventative education and empowering people to share their lived experiences with mental health, mental illness, and stigma.

The Society is incorporated under the Society Act of British Columbia and transitioned to the new BC Societies Act on July 23, 2018. As a Canadian Registered Charity, the Society is exempt from income tax and may issue receipts for charitable donations.

2. Basis of accounting:

The basis of accounting applied in the preparation of the financial information is on the historical cost basis, reflecting cash transactions with the addition of the following:

- Accounts payable and accrued liabilities.
- Deferred revenue in relation to grants received

3. Significant accounting policy:

Donations in-kind:

The Society records donated materials, services and facilities in those cases where:

- · the Society controls the way they are used;
- there is a measurable basis for arriving at fair value; and
- the services are essential services, which would normally be purchased and paid for if not donated.

The Society would not be able to carry out its activities without the services of the many volunteers who donate a considerable number of hours. Because of the difficulty of compiling these hours, contributed services are not recognized in the financial statements.

4. Revenue:

Donations and grants revenue is comprised of revenue received from the Province of British Columbia, the British Columbia Gaming Commission, corporations and foundations. Community support revenue includes amounts donated to the Society by individuals, service clubs, school and community organizations and municipal governments.

5. Technology and websites:

The Society has traditionally offered programming in person throughout schools and communities in British Columbia before the COVID-19 pandemic. The Society adapted their programming for mental health education and peer support to virtual delivery via online websites due to the restrictions of the COVID-19 pandemic in 2021 and continues to do so moving forward.

6. Other government assistance:

The Society applied for the Canada Emergency Wage Subsidy (CEWS). CEWS was a subsidy that provided government assistance up to 75% of eligible remuneration and was based on the revenue reduction experienced by the Society due to COVID-19. The funds received are not required to be repaid. During the year, the Society received and recognized a total of $nil (2021: $21,202) in relation to this subsidy.

In addition, the Society applied for and received the Canada Emergency Business Account (CEBA) made available under the Federal government COVID-19 response plan. The CEBA was an interest free government loan with a portion being forgiven if certain conditions are met. The loans intention was to help cover operating costs during a period where revenues were temporarily reduced due to COVID-19. Under this program, the Society received $nil (2021: $40,000) and repaid $30,000 (2021: $nil). Since the Society repaid the balance of the loan on or before December 31, 2023, it resulted in loan forgiveness of 25 percent. The $10,000 forgivable portion was recognized in the prior year statement of operations.
